

Lesson Two: Developing a Godly Character

1. Joseph and Esther were probably no more than sixteen years old when these events took place in their lives. When do you suppose they began developing their strong, godly character? Why do you say this?
2. Have you ever thought about what kind of character you wished to display before the world? Have you been actively engaged in working at it?

(Activity)

3. To perform any kind of endeavor we need the right kind of _____.
4. Who is supposed to be our example in the spiritual things of our life? _____

Let's take a closer look at His life to see what kind of tools we should be using to develop a character like His.

a. Luke 2:51 - _____

b. Luke 2:46-47 - _____

(See also 2 Timothy 3:16) _____

c. Luke 21:37-38 - _____

d. Mark 6:45-46 - _____

e. Matthew 4:2 - _____

f. Hebrews 1:9 - _____, and
