

The Brother of Jared- Lesson 1 of 2

Ether 1,3,6

Genesis 10:32, 11:1-9

2200-2000 B.C.

Read: The Brother of Jared, the first ten pages, or wherever you feel comfortable leaving off.

Discuss: The power of prayer is the theme here. The Brother of Jared had a lot of faith. The Lord had mercy on him and his friends and family because of his prayers.

-Always remember to pray!

- The Lord is always listening! He knows what is good for us, so we don't always get what we prayed for. If He knows what we prayed for will be a good blessing for us, He will grant it , according to His will. "...If we ask anything according to His will, he heareth us;" 1 John 5:14

Can you think of a blessing you asked for? Did the Lord give it to you?

Create: Barges

Materials: Two disposable Styrofoam or paper bowls, stapler, pencil, one crayon, paint & paintbrush (optional), small clear stones (optional) and glow in the dark paint (optional).

Directions:

1. Put one bowl down on the table. Flip the other bowl upside-down, placing it directly on top of the other bowl, so the edges match up.
2. Staple around the edges.
3. Use the pencil to poke holes in the center of the top bowl and the bottom bowl.
4. Optional– paint your barge, and decorate it!
5. Break the crayon in half, and wedge each half into both the top hole and bottom hole.
6. Another option is to paint two clear glass “stones” with glow in the dark paint, and after they are dry, place them inside the barges. I don't know what to call them, but you see they have these at the dollar store. They are small, clear glass stones that are flat on the bottom.
